Message from the Head teacher

Dear Parents/Carers

It has been wonderful to see the children after our summer break, meeting their new teachers and being reacquainted with their friends.

Lots of the classes have had one hundred percent attendance this week however, some classes have had attendance levels of 88% this week and this needs to improve dramatically. The national target is 97% or above so we will continue to send letters, conduct home visits and request medical information if pupils are absent.

Later on in the term, we have planned parent/carer afternoons and you will be invited to visit your child's class and see some of their topic work - more information will follow nearer the time.

I'm pleased to announce that Gwlady's Street now has a Parent/Teacher Association (PTA) and I will send you some information about our Chair of the PTA in next week's newsletter.

School will be closed on Monday as it is a bank holiday due to the funeral of Queen Elizabeth II. Whether you are watching the funeral on television with your family or relaxing, please have a restful weekend and take care.

Attendance Matters

Whole School Target: 97% - This week's Whole school attendance: 94.3%

Absence—if your child is absent from school you MUST contact the school before 9:00am each day of your child's absence. Failure to make any contact with the school will result in a home visit from staff and Head teacher.

Appointments—should be arranged outside of the school day and if this is not possible, medical evidence should be provided.
