Message from the Head Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers

I hope that your children have had a lovely week at school and that you are all looking forward to the October half term. We have a busy and exciting week ahead of us. Next week, we are looking forward to a visit from the Lord Mayor, Roy Gladden, who is also one of our school governors at Gwladys Street. The children will have the opportunity to ask him lots of questions about his role. Next Thursday, we also have a range of activities planned that are centred around Black History Month as we learn about a range of inspirational people. In addition, we will be learning about bonfire safety as we approach November 5th and we are hoping to have some special visitors on our playground in their large red truck!

Have a wonderful weekend and we look forward to seeing you all on Monday.

Best wishes

Miss Booth
