

Reading Calendar 2026 to 2027

|           |                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| September | Exploring Top Ten Titles baskets within classes                                                                                             |
| October   | Ollie Clark to visit school                                                                                                                 |
| November  | 12 th NovemberRead for Good Michael Rosen Day 2026                                                                           |
| January   | Teacher SwapTeachers reading stories to another class in another key stage                                                          |
| February  | Week Beginning 23 rd FebruaryLiverpool Festival of ReadingWednesday 3 rd FebruaryWorld Read Aloud Day |
| March     | Thursday 4 th MarchWorld Book DaySchool Book Fair                                                                    |
| April     | 2 nd AprilInternational Children's Book Day                                                                                  |
| May       | Reading BuddiesSharing stories with our peers                                                                                           |
| June      | Celebrating Pride throughout the month of June using diverse texts.                                                                         |
| July      | Reading BuddiesSharing stories with our peers                                                                                       |